Adrienne Papp (born on July 1, 1965) Was raised in Northern Hungary. Her father was an engineer who was active in local politics. Her mother was involved in the arts and managed art galleries. She has one younger sister who has two daughters. She graduated from Corvinus University of Budapest with an MBA and a Master of Science Degree in Economics with major in International Marketing and Logistics. Adrienne's love for international travel led to a job in Copenhagen, Denmark, right after her graduation working for a computer technology company called AK Techotel. A few years later once she gained enough business experience while living and sharing her time equally between Copenhagen, Denmark and Stockholm, Sweden and setting up business all over Europe including England, Germany, France and Italy. Papp decided to pursue her career in New York City, and after relocating in the U.S., started a business with an Irish investor. She built and managed an International Consulting firm in New York City in the fields of health and beauty, high-technology, marketing communication, finance, joint ventures, investment banking, and entertainment financial consulting.

Papp's companies, Adrienne Papp, Spotlight Media Productions, Atlantic Publicity, AtlanticUnitedFilms and Atlantic Publisher, are collectively referred to as Atlantic Publicity. They are media communication companies based in Los Angeles, New York and Aspen. Papp continued collecting various diplomas and post graduation papers into her late 30's.

Papp was an exceptional student at Ferenc Foldes High School, the best-regarded schools in Hungary, and was also known for her cheerful disposition, outgoing approach to life, and love of poetry. At Ferenc Foldes she also developed a love for the theater and directed, produced and acted in plays that were performed nationwide. After graduating, Papp was accepted to prestigious Karl Marx University of Economics (today called Corvinus University of Budapest). Five years later she graduated with honors, with majors in Economics and Marketing. Her minor was International Traffic, Transportation and Logistics, studies that later served as the platform for on-time management and international logistics for companies including DHL and FedEx. Papp was also offered an honorary Ph.D. for her extensive work in transportation logistics, an altogether new field, and her innovative and unique research studies remain on file in the University library under her authorship serving current and upcoming generations. Papp also discovered an innovative mathematical formula in the relatively new field of Informational Technology in both Fortran and Pascal languages.

Adrienne is a regular guest on the radio show called People of Distinction airing on WomensRadio and on Live365.
